

Join the Movement. Gain the skills. Make Peace an Active part of your life.

Learn how to negotiate conflict, intervene to prevent sexual violence, communicate better with your partner or de-escalate situations of verbal crisis, tell the world how you will practice peace at the Wall of Peace and see the concept of Sanctuary brought to life through art.

Join the movement by participating in any of the following ProActive Peace activities during the months of February, March and April.

Please note: Addresses below represent training locations

Five Love Languages

February 27th & April 5th | 3 - 4pm

Conquering Conflict

March 2nd & 6th | 3 - 4pm

Safer Sex Fest

March 8th | 1 - 3pm

Wall of ProActive Peace

March thru April | 9am - 6pm

Sanctuary Art Exhibit

Opens March 8th

Open during GSC hours M - T 10am - 5pm

F 10am - 2pm

Don't Standby Intervene

March 15th | 12 - 1:30pm

Healthy Relationships

April 18th | 12 - 1pm

Hear Me Out! De-escalation Strategies that Promote Peaceful Communication

April 12th | 2 - 3pm

Promoting Peace: Understanding & Responding to Hate Crimes & Bias Incidents

April 27th | 12 - 1:30pm

Wellness Center

Student Center East

Suite 238

312.413.2120

Gender & Sexuality Center

Behavioral Science Building

Suite 183

312.413.8619

Women's Leadership & Resource

Center Campus Advocacy Network

1101 W Taylor Street 3rd floor

312.413.1025

Counseling Center

Student Center East

Suite 238

312.996.3490

Office of Access & Equity

Student Center East

Suite 238

312.996.8670

Hosted by: Wellness Center

In Partnership With: Access and Equity, Campus Advocacy Network, Campus Housing, Counseling Center, Gender and Sexuality Center, Office of the Dean of Students, Undergraduate Student Government.

Honoring the national campaigns of: It's On Us and Enough is Enough.